AMENDMENT NO. 6

On page 2, after line 8, insert:

D. (1) For purposes of this Section, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) "Age- or developmentally appropriate" means activities or items that are generally accepted as suitable for children of the same chronological age or level of maturity or that are determined to be developmentally appropriate for a child, based on the development of cognitive, emotional, physical, and behavioral capacities that are typical for an age or age group; and in the case of a specific child, activities or items that are suitable for the child based on the developmental stages attained by the child with respect to the cognitive, emotional, physical, and behavioral capacities of the child.

(b) "Reasonable and prudent parent standard" means the standard characterized by careful and sensible parental decisions that maintain the health, safety, and best interests of a child while at the same time encouraging the emotional and developmental growth of the child, that a caregiver shall use when determining whether to allow a child in foster care under the responsibility of the state to participate in extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, social, and sporting activities.

(c) "Caregiver" means a person with whom the child is placed in foster care, or a designated official for a child residential facility licensed by the state.

(2) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to authorize any decision that conflicts with the residual parental rights, as defined in Children's Code Article 116, of a parent of a child.

E. (1) Each caregiver shall use the reasonable and prudent parent standard in determining whether to give permission for a child living in foster care under the responsibility of the state to participate in extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, social, or sporting activities.

(2) When using the reasonable and prudent parent standard, the caregiver shall consider all of the following:

(a) The child's age, maturity, and developmental level in order to maintain the overall health and safety of the child.

(b) The potential risk factors and the appropriateness of the extracurricular enrichment, cultural, social, or sporting activity.

(c) The best interest of the child, based on information known by the caregiver.

(d) The importance of encouraging the child's emotional and developmental growth.

(e) The importance of providing the child with the most family-like living experience possible.

(f) The behavioral history of the child and the child's ability to safely participate in the proposed activity.

F. Each child in foster care shall be allowed to travel out of state with his foster parent or another department-approved adult so long as the foster parent confirms with the department in advance of the departure date that no reason exists to prevent such travel, and provides a travel itinerary to the department.

G.(1) A foster caregiver who approves a foster child's participation in an age- and developmentally appropriate extracurricular, enrichment, cultural, social, or sporting activity is not liable for harm caused to the child at such activity, provided that the caregiver has acted in accordance with the reasonable and prudent parent standard.

(2) Nothing in this Section shall be construed to remove or limit any existing liability protection afforded by law.
